

Registration for the European Future Lecture Series is free of charge but reservation is required prior to March 22. Please note that for security reasons only registered guests will be allowed.

The lectures will be followed by a reception with the speakers at the Warande (Salon Zinner) 20:00 – 22:00. Separate registration for the reception (limited participants) is required prior to March 22. A registration fee of € 50 applies for the reception.

For registration please follow the instructions at WWW.PROFLANDRIA.BE

PROFLANDRIA

CRISIS IN EUROPE: IN SEARCH OF THE EXIT

One of the world's leading economic voices on sustainable European integration

CRISIS IN EUROPE: IN SEARCH OF THE EXIT

TRANSREGIONAL PERSPECTIVES ON SUSTAINABLE EUROPEAN INTEGRATION

Pro Flandria, the network of Flemish entrepreneurs and academics, has the pleasure to invite you to its European Future Lecture Series on Thursday, MARCH 28 2013, 18:00 - 20:00 (doors 17:30) at the Warande, zaal Baron Lode Campo, Zinnerstraat 1, 1000 Brussel.

INTRODUCTION

Prof. Dr. Hans Verboven
(Faculty of Applied Economics, University of Antwerp)

LECTURES

Prof. Dr. Hans-Werner Sinn
(Director of Ifo Institute for Economic Research)

Europe in crisis

Prof. Dr. Eric Buyst
(Director of VIVES, The Flemish Institute for Economy and Society)

Sustainable interregional transfers: lessons from Belgium

CONCLUSION AND OUTLOOK

Kurt Moons
(Chairman Pro Flandria)

Prof. dr. Hans-Werner Sinn

is the President of Ifo Institute for Economic Research (Munich). His books include "Can Germany be Saved? The Malaise of the World's First Welfare State", MIT Press (2007) and "The Green Paradox", (2012). The British newspaper The Independent named Sinn among the ten most important people who changed the world in 2011 and the German Business weekly WirtschaftsWoche placed him in the No. 1 position among the "Most Important Economists" in the country.